

PLEASE don't pass a law that is weaker than the one applicable in Indiana. Prior to its inception, we received ten to twelve calls a week and that number has dropped to less than two. It is so nice to be able to eat a meal or have friends over or enjoy your favorite ball game to television program without being interrupted. Indiana's law has been a true blessing and anything less would be a giant step backwards.